The fair received enthusiastic participation from manufacturers, buyers, and business professionals from both India and abroad.

Over the course of three dynamic days, the fair hosted a vibrant mix of product showcases, business meetings, and buyer-seller interactions. # Inauguration Ceremony

The event was inaugurated by Chief Guest Ms. Nidhi Dua, VP Sourcing (India, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka) - Levi Strauss (India) Pvt. Ltd. and Guest of Honour Ms. Jasveen Kaur, Sr. Director - Merchandising, New Times Group of Companies along with industry stalwarts. Both the dignitaries emphasized the importance of trade fairs driving industry growth, encouraging innovation and sustainability & enabling access to wider markets

I believe it's not just a fair, it's a powerful platform for collaboration. Events like these go beyond being mere showcases, they bring together textile leaders, accessory manufacturers, innovators, and artisans to inspire, co-create, and unlock greater opportunities. It truly takes a village to put together a show of this scale. This is our chance to collaborate more deeply and become globally more competitive together.

Can't get enough of what TFI has to offer! There's an incredible range of products and innovation on display from fabrics and trims to raw materials, the variety is truly impressive. I'm quite blown away by the creativity and quality I've seen. The suppliers here are amazing, and each one brings something unique to the table. TFI is a highly curated platform, and it really shows in the kind of sourcing experience it delivers.

It was our first time at Homtex, and it was a good experience. We were looking for B2B clients and export opportunities, and we got some great leads with serious enquiries. It was also special to meet customers who had bought our products online, they were happy to see us in person. A win-win for us, and we look forward to exhibiting again.

The integrated system here really helps us. The 'fiber to finish' concept truly comes together, with all participants and innovations under one roof. What stands out at TFI is the specialised focus given to each segment, whether it's fiber, yarn, fabric or garments. "

This was our first time participating at TFI, and the response was really good. Our main agenda was to connect with chain stores and attract quality export buyers and we got exactly that. We were constantly engaged with visitors and didn't get a moment to sit! There were many serious enquiries, and today we even had a sourcing head from Reliance visit our stall.

Manuraj Sureshababu

It was a very good experience for us at the show. Many buying houses visited our stall, and we got to interact directly with decision-makers and company owners. When they see the product in person, they understand its quality and uniqueness much better. We also met representatives from Aditya Birla and Landmark, which was a great opportunity.

Visitor Testimonials

The show attracted top decision-makers from across the country and abroad, reaffirming its position as a strategic sourcing and networking destination.

“There’s always a need for something new, whether it’s a better way of doing things or a more cost-effective product for our customers. That’s why platforms like this are so important. It’s always fruitful to attend shows like these. Just yesterday, I was looking for a home supplier, and not only did I find one willing to work with the quantities I needed, I actually found four! What’s more, many of the suppliers here are showcasing multiple collections, which adds great value to the sourcing experience.

Shweta Dhir Director - Orange Sourcing

“Interesting! Some of the products here are truly interesting — we saw Eri silk from the Northeast and many sustainable options worth exploring. It’s a great platform for designers and buyers to discover innovation under one roof. Instead of traveling to multiple locations, we’re able to find everything here fabrics, trims, finishes, washes, new garment techniques, fibers, and weaving innovations. It saves a lot of time and adds real value.

Gaurav Kapahi GM-Sourcing - Blackberrys

“This has been our best experience so far much more comprehensive, with a wide range of biodegradable products. As a cruelty-free manufacturer sourcing organic and recycled materials, we even found options that were previously hard to access in India. The show brought everything and everyone together in one place, which made sourcing much easier. Some truly great finds this time!
